

“Guilty Until Proven Innocent”

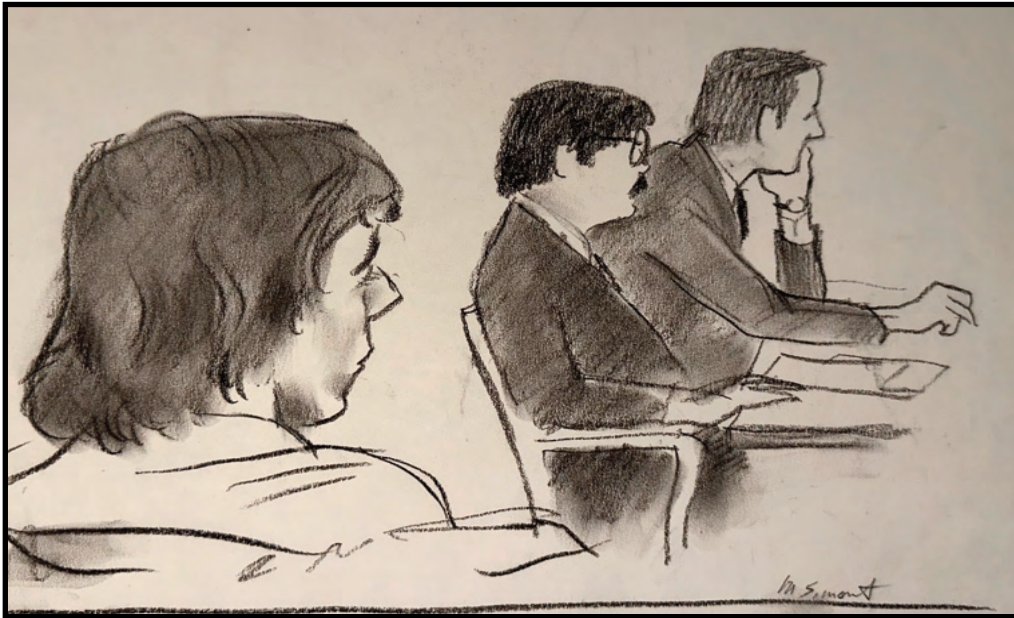

On False Confession & Wrongful Conviction

Arthur Miller Society & Arthur Miller Writing Studio present this panel event to commemorate Arthur Miller’s birthday

Saturday, October 14, 2023, 2 pm

Minor Memorial Library, 23 South St, Roxbury, CT & via livestream

Peter Reilly with attorneys. Litchfield County Courthouse, 1976. Sketch by Marc Simont

Learn firsthand about criminal justice reform in Connecticut.

A panel discussion on the challenges of exonerating the innocent will feature:

- Advocates Peter Reilly and Gaylord Salters
- Attorneys Peter Herbst and Alex Taubes
- Connecticut ACLU board member Eva Bermúdez Zimmerman
- Moderator Stephen Marino, editor of the Arthur Miller Journal

A question and answer session will follow the discussion.

Fall 2023 marks 50 years since Falls Village, CT, teenager Peter Reilly’s murder arrest and coerced false confession. This far-ranging panel event is inspired by Arthur Miller’s support of Reilly’s defense in the 1970s and will also explore the contemporary experience of New Haven resident & author Gaylord Salters. The CT American Civil Liberties Union will share resources for protecting your rights if stopped by police. Actor Jack Gilpin will read from Miller’s published & unpublished works. Illustrator Marc Simont’s 1970s courtroom sketches will be on exhibit. Hospitality to follow.

This event is free & open to public. Seating is limited, on a first come, first served basis.

For more info. & livestream link: www.arthurmillerstudio.org

This event is supported by a grant from

CThumanities

